Apprentice and trainee benefits

Your wellbeing

Private health

Private health insurance is affordable when you have a corporate discount. Medibank members with health cover save 9% off Medibank travel, pet, life and income protection insurance.

Employee assistance program

When things get tough, our apprentices and trainees have access to four free sessions of personal counselling, coaching or financial advice with our Employee Assistance Provider Converge International.

Annual flu vaccinations

We offer free scheduled onsite flu vaccinations. You can also book direct through Chemist Warehouse.

Gym benefits

Start your wellness journey with our Fitness Passport program! Fitness Passport gives you access to a wide range of gyms, clubs, pools, and facilities in your area at discounted rates.

Your finance and savings

Salary packaging

Salary packaging is about paying less income tax and increasing your take-home pay. There are many ways you can financially benefit so talk to us to find out more!

Novated leasing

Use your pre-tax income to buy a new or used car and save on the purchase price and running costs.

Discounts

We have a great range of discount providers for whitegoods and certain KIA vehicles.

You can receive discounts at Super Cheap Auto when you quote 0400COMSOL and make a purchase.

Superannuation

Our default super fund (BUSSQ) offers low fees, coaching and advice which means more money in your pocket for when you retire.

Your career

Recognition

Recognition is an important part of how we lead. We recognise the exceptional work of our apprentices and trainees and celebrate milestones including years of service.

Learning & development

We provide you with a supportive induction program to set you up for success. Apprentices and trainees can maximise their potential through a variety of learning opportunities including:

- online learning
- face-to-face and virtual workshops
- mentoring and coaching
- supported on-the-job training.

We make a difference in communities and people's lives, supporting our clients to achieve their goals, working with them on their pathway to possibilities.
