We explain what these words mean

This Easy Read is about International Women's Day.

International Women's Day is celebrated on March 8th every year.

International Women's Day is a special day to celebrate women.

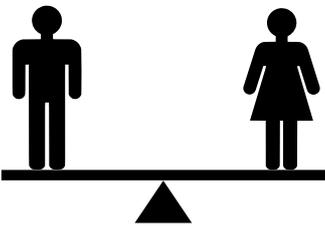

We can celebrate the things women have done in different areas like politics, science, art, and more.

People might go to events to celebrate women.

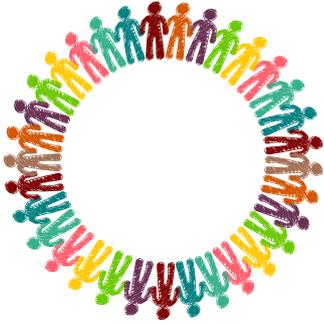

People might talk about women who have done amazing things.

It's also a day to talk about something called gender equality.

Gender equality means that everyone should have the same opportunities and rights.

A right is something that you are allowed to do or have no matter who you are.

You can celebrate International Women's Day by talking about women with your family, friends and team mates.

You can talk about working together to make sure everyone is treated the same.

International Women's Day is a good thing.

You can ask a support person for help if you don't understand.
